

Travelling from Budapest Liszt Ferenc Airport (Ferihegy) to Szeged by train:

Please note that the railway station is connected only to Terminal 1, so if you arrive at Terminal 2, first you have to go to Terminal 1 in order to catch a train to Szeged.

- 1) From Terminal 2 take the Bus 200E towards “Kőbánya-Kispest”. You can buy bus tickets from the driver (400 HUF) or from a vending machine (320 HUF) in front of the Airport building. You need to have some Hungarian currency because you can pay only in HUF. More information can be found on the web page of the Budapest local transportation company: <http://www.bkv.hu>.
- 2) If you have pre-purchased train tickets then get off at “Ferihegy railway station” and get through the overpass in the direction of “CEGLÉD”. Otherwise, go one stop further to Terminal 1, where you can buy your train tickets. The distance between the terminals is about 10 kms, roughly 10 minutes of travelling.
- 3) Go inside Terminal 1 and buy your railway ticket at the Tourinform desk right next to the entrance. You are advised to ask for an Inter City ticket with seat reservation to Szeged. A 1st class single ticket costs ~4290 HUF, a 2nd class single ticket is ~3510 HUF. The ticket office is open from 8:00 AM to 10:00 PM. Time tables, prices and other information can be found on the web page of the train transportation company: <http://www.mav-start.hu>.
- 4) Leave Terminal 1 and follow the pedestrian path towards the railway station.
- 5) The two platforms of the railway station are connected to Terminal 1 with a pedestrian footbridge equipped with lifts above the clearway. Climb the stairs or take the lift and walk along the overpass towards the platform. Make sure you choose the right platform towards the direction of “CEGLÉD”! Please note that „Szeged” is not always indicated on the information boards at the railway station.
- 6) Make sure you get on the right train! Trains to Szeged stop at every hour and 13 minutes.
- 7) Check your seat ticket, find your seat and enjoy the journey which takes about 2 hours. Szeged is the last stop, so once on the train you do not need to worry about where to get off.
